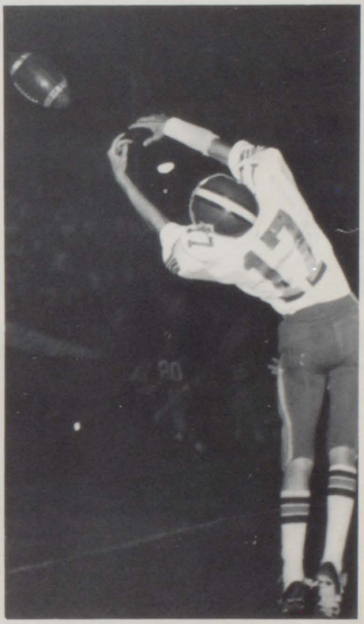
VARSITY PLAYBACK

The 1980 football season began as many football seasons do, with a very optimistic group of players working hard to get ready for their first game. In the season opener, the Rebels dropped a 21-7 decision to the Kinston Bulldogs and the next week disaster struck against Coffee Springs as six starters went to the sidelines with injury. Coffee Springs won the game 21-0 after the Rebels could not capitalize on 2 fumbles early in the game, which could have easily "turned the tide."

Week number three of the season saw Long High come to town to play the first of four area games. The Rebel defense shined this night as they shut down Andrew Perryman of Skipperville and defeated Long High 7-0 on a last second touchdown pass. September 26, the Rebels traveled to Louisville and were beaten 14-6 by the Red Devils. Time after time Zion Chapel had a chance to put the game away but fumbles and incomplete passes led to the downfall of the Rebels. Week number five of the season matched the Rebels against the undefeated Ariton Purple Cats. Many of the injured players returned this night and a hard fought game was won by Ariton 27-14. All hopes for a return to the state play-offs were now gone. The next two weeks the Rebels lost their homecoming game to New Brockton 21-6 and lost to Brantley 14-6.



On October 24 the Rebels from Zion Chapel showed what they could do when they played together as a team with great desire. The Houston Academy Raiders were coming to town with highly heralded Jon Thomas and a powerful team that was a "three touchdown favorite" going into the game

The Rebels defense stopped Houston Academy time after time until finally the Raiders broke one long run to make the score 7-0. Zion Chapel got the ball down close and missed a field goal and then late in the game got inside the 5 yard line, only to come up short on 4th down.

When the clock ticked off, the Rebels had dropped a heart-breaker 7-0, but the true ability of Zion Chapel had been shown. The last two games of the season the Rebels "broke loose" and ended all of their frustrations with sound and convincing victories over Clio (27-6) and Wicksburg (39-12).

So marked the end of the 1980 season. One which had had a disappointing 3-7 record, but one that also proved (by the last 3 weeks of the season) that playing with a great desire, and together as a team, you are unlimited in your success. This is true not only in football but in everyday life.

All conference selections for the 1980 season included Zion Chapel's Andy Cape and John David Parker at the linebacker position and Jessie Sawyer at offensive tackle. Selected for the "all Coffee County" team were: Andy Cape, John David Parker, Jessie Sawyer, Terry Brunson, Blair Hurd, Mike Ammons, Daniel Sanders, Tony Calhoun, and Boyd Deal. Selected for "All Wiregrass Area" team were: Andy Cape—Linebacker, Boyd Deal—Place kicker.

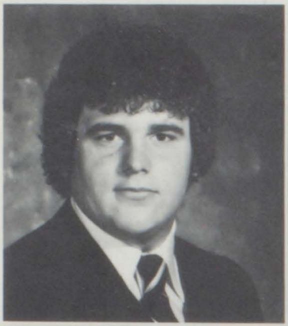
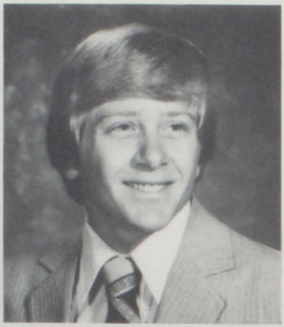
A Graduate's Prayer
Father, I have knowledge, so will You show me now
How to use it wisely and find a way somehow
To make the world I live in a little better place,
And make life with its problems a bit easier to face . . .
Grant me faith and courage and put purpose in my days,
And show me how to serve Thee in the most effective ways
So all my education, my knowledge and my skill,
May find their true fulfillment as I learn to do Thy Will . . .
And may I ever be aware in everything I do
That knowledge comes from learning—and wisdom comes from you.

—Helen Steiner Rice



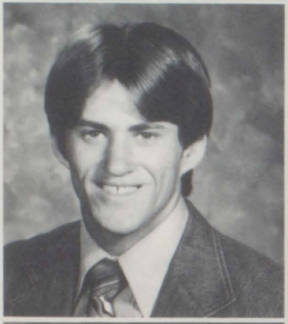


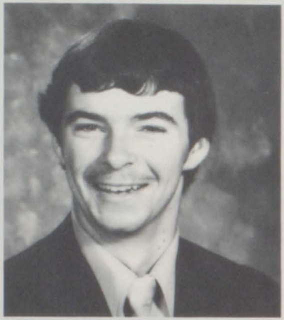
Michael Hayes Ammons

You can't keep trouble from coming, but you need not give it a chair to sit on.

Jackie Dwayne Bell

The man who seeks one thing in life, and but one, may hope to achieve it before life be done; but he who seeks all things, wherever he goes, only reaps from the hopes which around him he sows—a harvest of barren regrets.



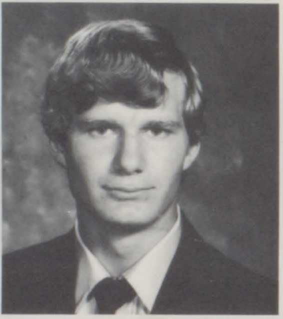


Mike Terry Brunson

Tomorrow life is too late: live today.

Tony Foy Calhoun

The first sigh of love is the last sigh of wisdom.

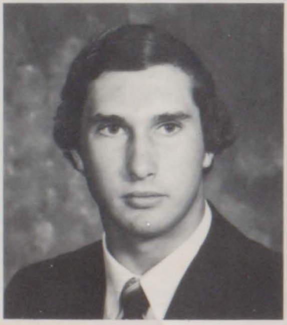


Kenneth Ray Campbell

Do unto the other feller the way he'd like to do unto you, an' do it fust.

Andrew Lee Cape

Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom; and with all thy getting get understanding.



Mike Carnley

I can resist everything except temptation.

Evelyn Culver

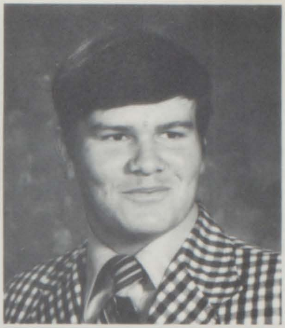
Love cannot be wasted. It makes no difference where it is bestowed, it always brings in big returns.

Annie Davis

Look to this day for it is life, for yesterday is only a dream and tomorrow is only a vision.

Charles William Davis

Better cross an angry man than a hungry man.

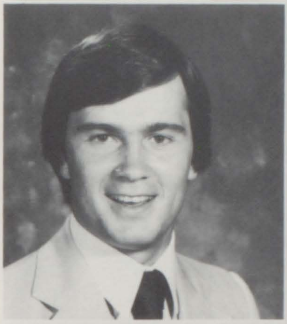


James Boyd Deal

Those who bring sunshine to the lives of others cannot keep it from themselves.

Vickie Marie Ellison

The best and most beautiful things in the world cannot be seen nor touched but are felt in the heart.



Tommie Mae Evans

Let me be the first to give a friendly sign, to nod first, smile first, speak first, and if such a thing is necessary, to forgive first.

Pamylon Gatlin

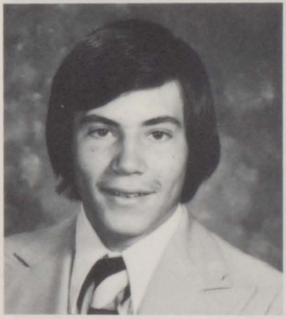
A smile costs nothing but gives much. It takes but a moment, but the memory of it usually lasts forever.

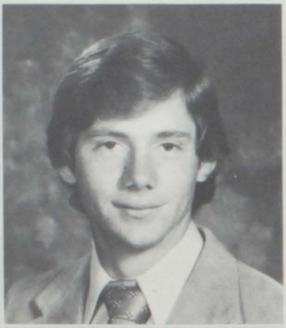
Charles Blair Hurd

Ideas are like beards: men do not have them until they grow up.

Mary Jo Davis Hussey

To love and be loved is the greatest happiness of existence.



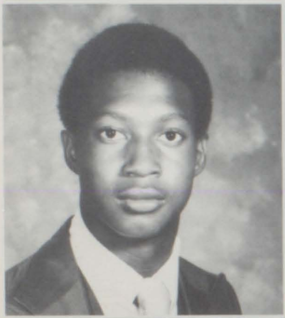


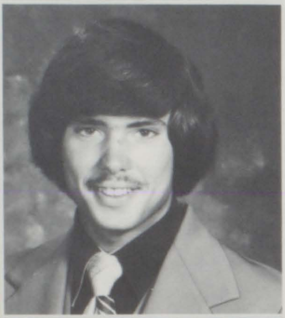
Rhonda Kerry Hussey

Humility and reverence for the Lord will make you both wise and honored.

Kieff Lambert

Laugh a little—Sing a little, as you go your way! Work a little—Play a little, Do this every day!



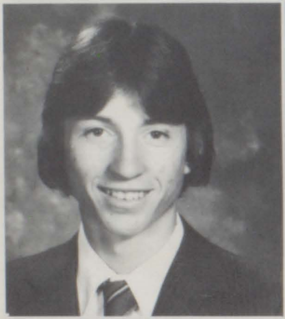


Frederick Enorise Liptrot

Do not do to others what would anger you if done to you by others.

Jimmy Dwaine Little

I never think of the future. It comes soon enough.



Lucian Ellis Maddox

Reaching for your dreams is more fun than attaining them.

Larry LaDon McWaters

Who is wise? He that learns from everyone. Who is powerful? He that governs his passion. Who is rich? He that is content. Who is that? Nobody.

Sandra Kay Mobley

Happy are those who dream dreams and are ready to pay the price to make them come true.

Vivian Janice Moultry

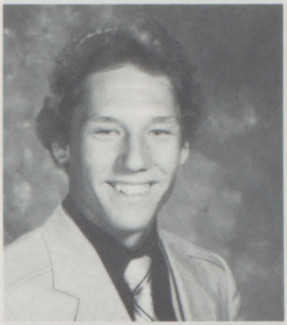
Boast not thyself of tomorrow; for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth.

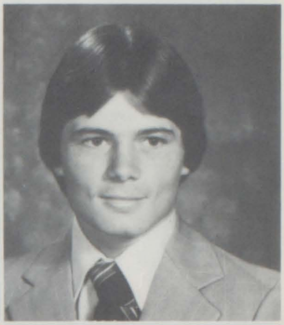
Michael Dallas Nelson

No man ever injured his eyesight by looking on the bright side of things.

John David Parker

Blessed are they who have nothing to say, and who cannot be persuaded to say it.



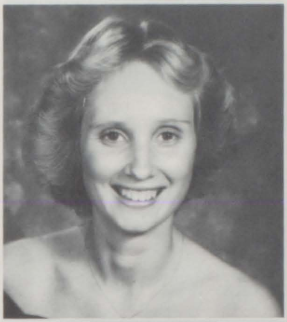


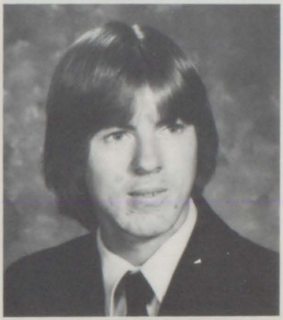
Melanie Parker

All things are possible to him that believeth.

Johnny William Perkins

I will sit down now, but the time will come when you will hear me.



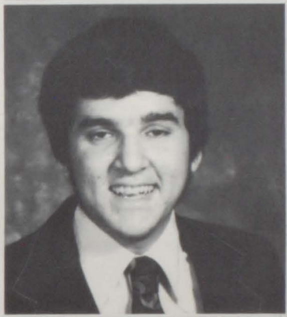


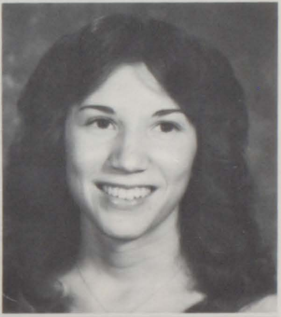
Phillip Bruce Pyfrom

When in doubt, mumble.

Donna Jo Rugg

Each new day is an opportunity to start all over again . . . to cleanse our minds and hearts anew and to clarify our vision. And let us not clutter up today with the leavings of other days.



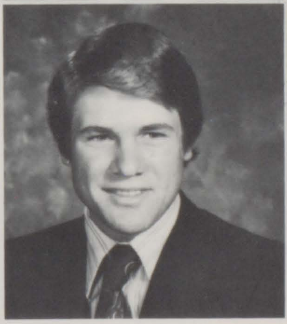


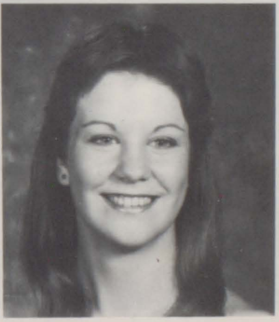
Mark Alex Sanders

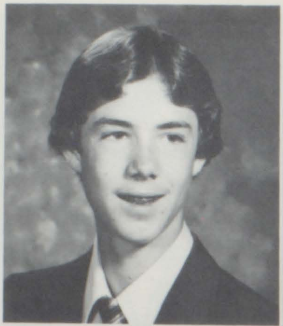
Happiness doesn't come from doing what we like to do but from liking what we have to do.

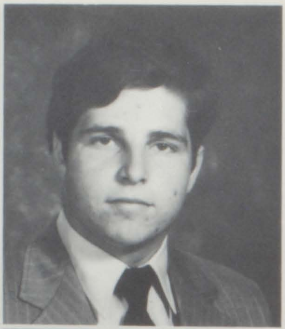
Melanie Melinda Sanders

True friends are life's golden treasures.









Timothy Alan Sathre

I recommend you to take care of the minutes, for the hours will take care of themselves.

Jessie Ray Sawyer

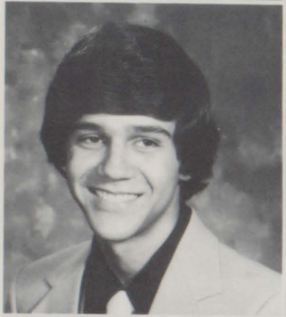
Positive thinking always results in the accomplishing of the many goals we set.

Melisa Gail Stinson

Thank God for today, for it is yesterday's tomorrow.

Tolbert Stone

The reputation of a thousand years may be determined by the conduct of one hour.

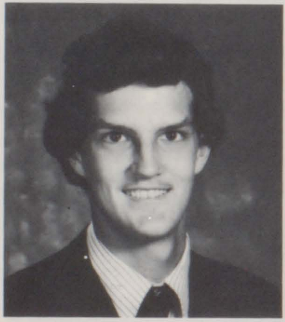


Danny Ray Turner

The love we give away is the only love we keep.

Lozene Warren

Friendship is the only cement that will hold the world together.



Robert Earnest Waters

Do the very best you can . . . and leave the outcome to God.

James Hayes White II

He who believes that the past cannot be changed has not yet thought of the possibility of a future.

Judy Sharon White

Measure your life by loss instead of gain; not by the wine drunk, but in the wine poured forth, for love's strength stands in love's sacrifice, and those who suffer most have most to give.

Pamela Gail Wilson

If you love something, set it free. If it comes back to you, it is yours, if it doesn't, it never was.

Each of our years has been a distinct unit in an element of time, and the pictorial history of school life in the Elba City Schools as preserved in the 1981 Elbala has given credence to this fact. The creation of the '81 yearbook has been a developmental process very much as our educational experiences have been. The publication began to take form with the pressing of time-much as our attainment of knowledges and skills, modifications in behavior and personality, and aquisition of friendships.

Now that our journalism efforts have been spent, we have recognized that we have acquired a strong foundation on which to build through the rest of our lives. We have accepted, also, that more will be added to this foundation that will make each of us different and, thereby, will enable us to travel our different paths. These paths can lead us into moments of great triumphs or disillusioning adversities. However, regardless of the greatest achievemnts or heart-rending disappointments, all of us will have the strengths of the building blocks cemented during our years of hopes and dreams in Elba High School.
